

OUTLAWS RULE.

Residents of Indian Territory Appeal to Washington.

Authorities Are Asked to Restore Law and Order.

BANDITS IN CONTROL.

People Are at the Mercy of Lawless Bands.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—The Indian office yesterday received advice by telegram from the Indian territory giving brief account of the lawless condition of affairs in that section, and asking that some action be taken by the United States authorities which will restore order and protect citizens in their rights. It is stated that armed bandits are in practical control of the territory. Lawless gangs infest all sections. Men are held up by highwaymen in broad daylight and robbed. Life and property are not secure either by day or night. The express companies have refused to transport money, and no other means of carrying funds have been devised. There are three well-known organized bands of desperadoes, composed of thieves, thugs and tough characters from all sections of the country, who make a business of pillaging towns. As a result a reign of terror exists and the people of the territory are at the mercy of these gangs. It is stated that the train hold-up reported in the Press dispatches yesterday morning is the work of one of these gangs. It is supposed that the marauders frustrated attention to another in pursuit of booty, and that the train robberies in the southwest are the work of these desperadoes who make their headquarters in the Indian Territory. Secretary Smith was furnished the dispatches by the Indian office.

Assistant Indian Commissioner Armstrong is very familiar with the section where the robbers are operating and has traveled through the country many times with large amounts of money, but never experienced any trouble. He thinks that the whole crew of lawless bandits should be driven out of the Indian country. Just now this is to be done, he says, is difficult to determine. There has been considerable discussion in congress growing out of the lawless condition of the Indian Territory. Suggestions have been made for entire reorganization of affairs there, in order that robbery may be suppressed and the control of the peace of the territory brought under authority competent to enforce law and order.

It is recognized by those who have given the matter attention that under present conditions the Indian country will always be the headquarters for lawless men. It has been suggested that in the present emergency the territory should be placed under martial law and troops directed to clear the territory of the gangs which now infest it. This would be an extreme measure and would not likely be resorted to unless all other methods fail.

Secretary Smith was engaged in hearing an important case early in the day and had not been able to give the dispatches from the Indian territory immediate attention.

IRON HALL MATTERS.

The First Step Taken to Wind Up the Affairs of the Order.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 23.—The first general report and account current of James A. Fahey as permanent receiver of the order of the Iron Hall was filed in the superior court yesterday. The general statements of the receivers are very long. Judge Winters made an order directing that the report and accompanying document be referred to John H. Holliday and George C. Eitt, as commissioners to report as to the method and accuracy of accounting. The filing of this report is the first step of several that will be taken immediately by Judge Winters to wind up the affairs of the trust. Judge Winters says that within the next ten days the receivership will be practically wound up. There remains in litigation only two phases of the trust. One is the life division and the other is the payment of matured certificates that were unpaid when the receiver was appointed. To meet these claims $300,000 will be held. A great portion of the remaining balance in the hands of the receiver, probably $250,000, will be held to protect unperfected claims. Of these there are 1,100, and the receiver is now receiving evidence to perfect the claims.

SWITCHMEN ORGANIZING.

A Protective Association Will Replace the Old S. M. A. A.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 23.—Delegates from Switchmen's unions from the leading cities of the United States are in Kansas City for the purpose of forming a Switchmen's Protective association to take the place of the Switchmen's Mutual Aid association, which went to pieces directly after the strike. The association now being organized is expected to start with a membership of 10,000. The delegates met at the K. of P. hall on Fourteenth and Penn streets yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock and effected a temporary organization. D. D. Sweeney of Jersey City, N. J., was elected chairman and M. E. Collins of Kansas City, Kan., secretary.

Alleged Train Robbers Arrested. FORT SMITH, Ark., Oct. 23.—Deputies Lawson and Jackson came in yesterday from Fort Gibson with John Vann, charged with being one of the party who held up the train at Corretta Saturday night. He is an Indian cowboy and denies having had anything to do with the hold-up.

THE IMPERIAL PATIENT.

The Condition of the Czar Shows No Material Change.

LONDON, Oct. 23.—Yesterday produced practically nothing to the point in regard to the situation of the czar. In all the continental capitals and in London there have been streams of callers, officials, dignitaries, ecclesiastical and humble people at the Russian embassy. To these, however, little information was vouchsafed and that little consisted of forebodings.

A St. Petersburg dispatch says the bulletin issued last night by the physicians in attendance on the czar, says: "His majesty slept five hours intermittently. He arose this morning as usual. His appetite has lessened. His strength has not increased."

Prayers and masses are incessantly offered for St. Petersburg to Vladimir, from Rome to Buenos Ayres.

The Cologne Gazette prints a St. Petersburg telegram stating that the czar has given orders for a settlement of the succession to the imperial crown. He has advised that Grand Duke George, his second son, should on account of his health, renounce his claim in favor of his brother, Grand Duke Michael, who ought to take the oath as his presumptive to the throne.

The Berliner Tageblatt publishes a telegram from Livadia asserting that the betrothal of the czar's daughter, Princess Alix, will formally occur today and that the marriage will be celebrated Wednesday. This hastening of the ceremony is said to be due to the rule of the Romanoff's requiring any heir apparent to marry before ascending the throne and to proclaim his successor. On this account the proclamation of the nearest magistrate, the Grand Duke Michael, as the ultimate heir-apparent is generally expected. Another rule in connection with the accession requires that when the oath of allegiance to a new czar is administered to the troops and officials, an oath of fidelity to the heir-apparent must be taken at the same time.

World's Fair First California Midwinter Fair next. With the highest honors at both Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder marches triumphant from the Great Lakes to the Pacific.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Mother Shot Dead and Father a Suicide at Hannibal, Mo.

HANNIBAL, Mo., Oct. 23.—Sanford Baldwin murdered his wife in this city early yesterday morning and then killed himself. The weapon used was a double-barreled shot gun. Baldwin was 50 years of age and his wife 35. Both had been married before their union last August, the woman having four children, one of whom Baldwin did not like. Quarrels over this one were frequent. Baldwin, in one these outbursts, threatened his wife's life. She, much alarmed, went with her children to the home of a neighbor. Yesterday morning she returned alone. The quarrel was renewed and the tragedy followed.

Breckinridge on the Stamp.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 23.—At Winchester yesterday Colonel W. C. P. Breckinridge spoke to several thousand people. The colonel spoke in favor of the Democratic nominees for district and county offices. Winchester is in the tenth congressional district, in which Judge William Buckner and Joe Kendall are the short and long term candidates. The colonel's reception proves that he will be a dangerous factor in the race for United States senator. The people of Martinsburg, where Colonel Breckinridge spoke last Saturday, have since instructed the prospective members of the legislature from Carter and Elbert counties to vote for Colonel Breckinridge for United States senator.

War on Raffles.

OTTAWA, Kan., Oct. 23.—The extent to which raffles of horses, shotguns, bicycles and watches have been conducted in this city of late has induced the authorities to attempt to put a stop to it. On Saturday Mr. John Lucher of North Ottawa, who raffled a cow one day last week, was fined $11.25. The Davenport-Lathrop Dry Goods company was also arrested. This firm had placed a box in a window containing $25. Every customer received a key with fifty-cent purchase of goods and the person who secured a key that will unlock the box was to get the money. The firm says this is no lottery and will carry it to the highest courts if necessary.

Six Men Hurt.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 23.—The building on Bridge Square, being demolished by the Pabst Brewing company for the erection of their new warehouse, fell shortly after 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Six men were buried under the debris, five of whom have been taken out badly injured, one possibly fatally. The sixth is still under a pile of brick, plaster and timbers and can be heard groaning by the firemen at work on the wreckage.

Shooting Scrape Near Guthrie.

GUTHRIE, Ok., Oct. 23.—J. M. Johnson and John Henderson, who are contestants for a claim near this city, quarreled because Henderson attempted to plow up wheat Johnson had sown, and both began shooting. Johnson was not hit, but Henderson was shot in the body and his son through the breast. The boy has died from his wound and the father's condition is critical. Johnson, who gave himself up at once, is the Democratic candidate for the legislature in this district.

George Gould After Ducks.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Oct. 23.—George Gould, the railroad magnate, and Superintendents Clark and Brownlee, of the Missouri Pacific system, and William E. Cody, the famous shot and scout, went out on the Bagall branch last evening and will devote several days to hunting. Mr. Gould and party will visit Buffalo Bill's ranch, in Nebraska.

TO CHEER DEMOCRATS

Vice President Stevenson Talks to Missouri People.

He Delivered a Dozen Speeches on His Trip.

TWO BIG RALLIES.

Large Meetings Were Held at Macon and St. Joe.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Oct. 23.—After an all day trip along the northern border of Missouri, during which his reception at different stations amounted to almost an ovation, Vice President Stevenson arrived here last night at 6:45. During the day Mr. Stevenson made nearly a dozen speeches from the platform of a special car, and at Macon he delivered an address lasting almost an hour. Notwithstanding this severe physical strain he was in splendid health and good voice, when amid the booming of cannon and the cheers of 10,000 lusty-lunged Missourians, the vice presidential train pulled into union depot here. The platforms and the railroad yards adjacent were black with people who pushed and jostled each other to secure a better point of vantage.

As the train steamed into the depot the Fourth regiment, N. G. M., deployed, and with fixed bayonets cleared an avenue through which the vice president and his escort passed to carriages. The party were met as they stepped from the train by a reception committee headed by State Committeeman Davis and made up of the leading wholesale merchants of the city. Four fall bands were stationed at different parts of the depot grounds, and as the party left the train dispersed in different directions. A procession was then formed with the Jefferson club, 400 strong, at the head, and preceded by a band and a flambeau club, the procession, 3,000 strong, marched to the new Crawford opera house, where the speaking took place.

The large theater was crowded two hours previous to the arrival of the vice president, and it was almost impossible for the party to get into the house. Judge O. M. Spencer assumed the chair in the absence of Congressman D. D. Barnes, who was prevented from attending by illness. Four hundred of the most prominent Democrats of the Platte purchase occupied the stage.

In presenting Mr. Stevenson to the audience Judge Spencer in a graceful manner regretted the fact 10,000 eager Americans were outside the doors who could not gain entrance, and for whom overflow meetings were then being held. It was estimated that 20,000 strangers were in the city. Fred W. Lehmann of St. Louis, Congressman A. M. Doeker, ex-Senator W. Alexander, ex-Governor Silas Woodson, Congressman W. H. Hatch, Attorney General Walker, Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee J. C. Maffitt and other distinguished Democrats occupied the stage.

General Stevenson opened his address with a characteristic anecdote illustrating the supposed death and resurrection of the Democratic party. He showed that the party stood pledged to tariff reform and that it had carried out its promise. He stated that the country on the renewed evidences of prosperity and predicted the coming year would show a most remarkable revival in all classes of industry. He was frequently interrupted by applause.

Hon. Fred W. Lehmann followed in a short address after which the vice presidential party, escorted by the Fourth regiment, two bands and a large number of the prominent politicians of this section, were driven to the Union station, where they departed at 10 p. m. for Joplin, going over the Burlington.

When shall we have real rapid transit? When Edison perfects his flying machine. Then the world will get its supply of Dr. Price's Baking Powder by the universal aerial route.

NEW YORK POLITICS.

The Situation as to Factional Democratic Candidates Still Unchanged.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—The Republican managers of the state campaign, while actively at work pushing the canvass in all parts of the state, are unable to find any distressing indications in their ranks, and in serene confidence are watching the attempts of their Democratic adversaries to adjust and harmonize the factional disturbances with which they are beset on all sides, and especially in this city. President Harrison will arrive here later in the week to attend to some private business, and while he is in the city it is Chairman Hackett's intention to arrange, if possible, a mammoth meeting at which the president will speak, and at which his former running mate, Mr. Morton, now the Republican candidate for governor, will be present.

Senator Hill spoke at Yonkers last night. He will speak at Brooklyn tonight and in New York and this vicinity until Friday, when he will return to the interior of the state. A great deal will depend on the result of his visit and the conferences he has with the state and local leaders. The situation, so far as the New York city and Brooklyn Democratic candidates for congress and assembly are concerned, is very critical with County Democracy candidates opposing the Tammany congressional and assembly candidates in this city, and Shepard candidates running against the regular nominees in the Brooklyn districts save that represented by Mr. Coombs. There are nine congressional districts in this city and five in Brooklyn. The opposition of the County Democracy candidates jeopardizes the election of from one to four Tammany candidates in this city, and the Shepards endanger four in the districts in Brooklyn.

STUDENTS WERE WRONG.

De Wolf Hooper Asks Why George Washington Was Buried at Mt. Vernon.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—About 850 Columbian college students attended the performance of "Dr. Syntax" last night, and the house echoed with their hilarity. In the schoolroom scene in the first act, when Hooper asks the school girls why was George Washington buried at Mount Vernon, one of the students stood on a seat and lifted his cane to beat time while his 349 companions sang in unison: "Because he never cared to wander from his own fireside."

As soon as the commotion had ceased Hooper came to the footlights and said: "No, boys, you are wrong. It was because he could not lie in his father's orchard."

CARL BROWNE IS OUT.

He Gives $300 Bail and Is Released From Jail.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—Carl Browne is out of jail on $300 bond for "parading" in Wall street Saturday without a permit.

Browne was arrested on the steps of the sub-treasury, where he had taken his stand along Washington's statue, and was addressing a crowd of brokers, clerks and small boys. The crowd was rapidly growing when the detectives swooped down on him.

The hoboes were greatly excited. They said the arrest of Browne was on a par with the incarceration of Coxey in Washington.

"O LORD GIVE US STRONG."

The Political Prayer of Rev. Dr. MacArthur of New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—The Rev. Dr. Robert S. MacArthur, pastor of Calvary Baptist church, spoke at the first monthly dinner of the Methodist Social League at the St. Denis Hotel on politics. He told the story of the clergyman who tried to pray in a non-partisan manner, and after praying that the right might triumph over the wrong, ended his prayer with: "O Lord, what is the use of beating about the bush? Give us Briggs for governor!" Then he ended his address with this paraphrase:

"Let us all strive for the right in the coming light, and let the good triumph over the evil. O Lord, what is the use of beating about the bush? Give us Col. Strong for mayor! I'm not partisan in this, however, because he is the only candidate in the field."

Some one whispered that Grant had decided to run.

"I am wrong, then," said Dr. MacArthur. "Well, I expected as much. Mr. Grant, we will attend to your case later."

A Bold Escape.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Oct. 23.—Sheriff James Holman started from Ray county yesterday with two prisoners. About a half mile east of Centertown, while the Missouri Pacific passenger train was making fully thirty miles an hour, E. J. Ryus, convicted of burglary in Ray county, and sentenced to two years in the penitentiary, jumped through the car window and, landing safely, ran for tall timber. The sheriff had taken the handcuffs off the prisoners during a lull. The cars were stopped and a deputy sheriff went in pursuit. At last accounts Ryus had not been recaptured.

G. A. R. Reunion at Emporia.

EMPORIA, Kan., Oct. 23.—An immense audience gathered in the court house last evening to greet Department Commander Campbell of the G. A. R., and hundreds were turned away, unable to gain admission. The occasion was a reunion of all the old soldiers in this vicinity, and terminated in a grand campfire. Commander Campbell presiding and Mrs. Belle C. Harris leading the veterans in old army style. After the meeting a banquet was served at G. A. R. hall by the ladies of the Woman's Relief Corps.

BRIEFS BY WIRE.

Ex-Governor Leon Abbott of Camden, N. J., has written a letter announcing that he is not a candidate for the United States senate in succession to Senator McPherson.

The regular work of the eleventh census will be completed in four months. A recent act of congress requires the census to be finished by March 4 next. There is no doubt as to the ability of the office to accomplish this.

The reported lynching of five men near Orangeburg, S. C., is untrue according to reports received at the Charleston News and Courier office, which say that the circulation of the report was a telegraph operator's joke.

John Walde, and old resident of Cambridge City, Ind., shot himself and his 3-year-old son Monday and both will die. Family trouble is given as the cause.

Ex-Police Judge Charles E. Morris of Springfield, Ohio, has died after being ill for some time. He was 69 years old. He is supposed to be in Canada. The heaviest sufferer is the Citizens' Building and Loan association, of which he had been the trusted attorney for eight years.

Mrs. C. F. Hartley, wife of the wealthy Chicago photographer, has notified the police that her husband has eloped with the wife of Victor D. L. Mudge, a prominent attorney. The whereabouts of the couple were unknown to Mrs. Hartley.

The United States supreme court has advanced for argument on the third Monday in December the case of the state of California vs. the Southern Pacific road, involving title to the water front of Oakland, Cal.

The United States supreme court has refused a hearing of the Indiana railroad tax case decided at the last term of the court. The cases involved the legality of the Indiana railway tax law.

Chauncey Wheaton, a wealthy farmer near Athens, Pa., was buccooed out of $5,000 by two sharpers who led him to believe that they wished to purchase a farm and induced him to engage in a game of cards, by which they succeeded in fleecing him. The swindlers escaped.

East Prussian farmers have sent Emperor William a memorial saying they endorse his policy.

IN A TRUANT BALLOON.

A Distance of 280 Miles Covered in Thirteen Hours.

Near Fellendorf, in Lower Austria, where some troops are carrying on shooting practice at balloons, a balloon named the Hanover, which had been filled at the gas works and was being taken to a field early, broke loose and rapidly rose, taking with it a single officer who happened at the time to be seated alone in the car. While the Hanover was being taken over some telegraph wires a certain number of the forty men holding the cords had temporarily to release the latter in order to get the balloon across. The men on the other side, however, were not strong enough to sustain the extra pull thus suddenly put on them, and they had rapidly to let the cords go.

The balloon then commenced to shoot up with amazing rapidity, lifting up with it several of the men still at the ropes. They had, however, sufficient presence of mind to slide down the cords and drop and they escaped with little hurt, chiefly slight skin abrasions on the hands. The situation of the officer in the car appeared desperate. He had neither ballast nor anchor nor provisions with him, and the greatest fears were entertained as to his safety. Fortunately these apprehensions were but partly destined to be realized. After a thirteen hours' journey the officer succeeded, not without great difficulty, in making a safe descent. He found he had reached the Bosnian and Slavonian frontier, a distance of about 280 miles from the point whence he started at Fellendorf.

PIETY AND PIE.

The Latter Is Satisfying, Even Though It Is Not Yankee Origin.

Two physicians were heard recently discussing the merits of the pies that their respective wives bake, when a listener asked one of them to define a pie. The questioner was a rugged looking fellow who earns his pie by the sweat of his brow. The individual addressed, assuming the air of one who knows, answered: "Pie is an article of food consisting of paste baked with something in it, or under it. My wife bakes both kinds," he added. "She's a good, pious woman, too. Piety in a woman is lovely. But it does not satisfy a man like pie," he added.

The discussion evolved the mutual agreement that pie is an English institution, which, planted in American soil, forthwith ran rampant into an untold variety of genera and species.

To go further, pie is one of the oldest of the English institutions. It is heard of in the first babblings of English literature. No article of food is so well or so widely known among the people of English speech. Its praises have been sung by poets and glorified by prose writers. Even the greatest of English philosophers, whose name is indissolubly associated with the inductive method, the immortal Bacon, did not deem the pie beneath his philosophical attention, for he says in one of his imperishable works that the "mincing of meat saveth the grinding of the teeth." Pie! What a place it fills in history and man, especially American man!

Truly Comic.

A Chinese company has produced a 3,000-year-old comic opera in Sydney. A local paper observes that a Chinese opera is like no other entertainment upon earth, except possibly a million iron tanks falling into a gully full of cats and rat bones. There is no scenery, and the orchestra, in its shabby sleeves, occupies the back of the stage. When any player's back hair gets adrift, owing to excessive exertion, one of the orchestra rises, fixes it and then goes back with an air of calm unconsciousness to his instrument. The orchestra consists partly of a Chinaman chopping wood, partly of another celestial blowing with a horrible intensity of devotion a bull's horn, partly of a curious stringed instrument which makes a cry like an infant forty yards high crying in the night and so on.

Water-Power Gun.

What is called a "water-power machine gun" has been patented. It is described as having a number of circumferentially arranged barrels, in the rear of which is a feed-wheel carrying a cartridge belt and operatively connected with a water-wheel, in connection with mechanism for exploding the cartridges. There is little mechanism liable to get out of repair in the gun, which is designed to automatically fire a continuous stream of bullets, and it may also be operated by hand if the water supply fails. This device may be a rival of the Maxim gun, and as it requires water, it is possible that some ingenious inventor may combine the two, and so produce a still more destructive engine of warfare.

Painting With Tapestry Dyes.

The manner of painting upon silk or wool, with tapestry dyes, is to poence the design through a sheet of perforated matilla paper. The poencing bag is filled half with powdered charcoal and half with burnt sienna, care being taken not to use so much as to stain or blur the background. As in all such processes, delicate manipulation is needful. Next, the outline must be traced in local color, with a small brush, before painting the background.

Never Towards the North.

The Japanese never sleep with the head toward the north. This is because the dead, in Japan, are always buried with the head in that position. In the sleeping rooms of private houses, and of hotels, even a diagram of the points of the compass is posted upon the ceiling for the convenience of guests.

Malarial Poison

Results from atmospheric conditions, malarial premises, imperfect ventilation and more frequently from the deadly SEWER GAS. A general rundown and impoverished condition of the blood ensues, and if not corrected, Catarrh, Bronchitis, and even Consumption may be the result. S. S. S. promptly corrects all these evil effects.

Mr. J. A. Rice, Ottawa, Kan., writes: "For three years I was troubled with malaria, which caused my appetite to fail, and I was so reduced in health that I could not do my work. I tried many remedies, but could get no relief. I then decided to try S. S. S. and after a few days I was cured. S. S. S. is a complete and permanent cure, and I now enjoy better health than ever.
